

DRAGGING

down pains are a symptom of the most serious trouble which can attack a woman, viz: falling of the womb. With this, generally, come irregular, painful, scanty or profuse periods, wasteful, weakening drains, dreadful backache, headache, nervousness, dizziness, irritability, tired feeling, inability to walk, loss of appetite, color and beauty. The cure is that marvelous, curative extract, or natural wine, of herbs, which exerts such a wonderful, strengthening influence on all female organs. Cardui relieves pain, regulates the menses, stops drains and stimulates the womb muscles to pull the womb up into place.

WINE OF CARDUI

It is a sure and permanent cure for all female complaints.

WRITE US A LETTER

Put aside all timidity and write us freely and frankly, in strictest confidence, telling us all your symptoms and troubles. We will send free advice (in plain, sealed envelope), how to cure them. Address: Ladies' Advisory Dept., The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

"I SUFFERED AWFUL PAIN

In my womb and ovaries," writes Mrs. Naomi Baker, of Webster Groves, Mo., "also in my right and left sides, and my menses were very painful and irregular. Since taking Cardui, I feel like a new woman, and do not suffer as I did. It is the best medicine I ever had in my house."

SOLVE LAKE MYSTERY

A DIVER LOCATES SCHOONER WRECK OF 14 YEARS AGO.

Fishermen's Nets Become Caught in Derelict Vessel Off Michigan Port—Investigation Follows—Various Surmises.

Michigan City, Ind.—A lake mystery of several years is believed to have been solved by the discovery of a wrecked three-masted schooner ten miles north-east of this port and three miles off New Buffalo, Mich.

Some days ago fishermen from New Buffalo discovered a derelict vessel off that port, their nets becoming caught on the vessel. The discovery was reported to Capt. A. A. Kent, of the life-saving station of this city, who, with his crew and Diver George Culbert, went to New Buffalo and made investigations. Diver Culbert located the wreck in 56 feet of water.

Instead of the wreck, as it was believed of the steamer Chicora, of the Graham & Morton Transportation company, which was lost in a gale on the night of January 1, 1895, while en route to St. Joseph from Chicago, with her crew of 26 men, the wreck, the diver found, was a three-masted schooner, 175 feet long and resembling the schooner Thomas Hume, belonging to the late Charles Hackley, of Muskegon, which mysteriously disappeared during a July night 14 years ago.

The Hume and her companion boat, the Raus Simmons, left Chicago for Muskegon, both sailing light. On the following day the Simmons arrived at Muskegon, but the Hume was never again heard of, notwithstanding the fact that thousands of dollars were spent in an effort to locate the missing vessel.

The Hume carried a crew of seven men, none of whom reached shore. Diver Culbert reports that he searched the wrecked schooner carefully for a name, but found none, her hull having been carried away. Diver Culbert says the vessel's hold was nearly filled with sand and that it was impossible to search for the remains of the vessel's crew.

BARS FLIRTING IN CHURCH

Sioux City, Ia., Y. M. C. A. Secretary Claps Ban on Chats Behind Hymn Books.

Sioux City, Ia.—No more tender messages and exchange of confidences will be permitted between Pretty Sue and Gallant Joe, behind sheltering hymn books in Sioux City churches, if the suggestion of Secretary Hellman, of the Y. M. C. A., to the ministerial association is followed out.

Secretary Hellman was defending the Y. M. C. A. against the general charge that the association does not fulfill its mission in that it fails to get a greater number of young men into the churches.

"Would you think of putting a newly-born babe into an ice box?" inquired the secretary with asperity. "That is what it would be like for young men to go to the churches as they are now generally conducted. We got 14,000 young men into our association rooms last year and threw about them good influences and got them to attend our Sunday meetings. What the church should do is to have its representatives at our building to show our young men that the churches are attractive."

"The young men you have attending your churches are usually accompanied by young women, and I tell you a young man is not susceptible to religious teaching when he sits beside a young woman and has the opportunity to visit with her. They ought to be free from this temptation and the churches should look after the young men and not complain because the Y. M. C. A. does not do it all."

KING OF FINANCE TO QUIT

J. P. Morgan Jr.'s Election to Directorate Leads to Prediction of Father's Retirement.

New York.—The retirement of J. Pierpont Morgan in favor of his son, J. P. Morgan, Jr., now in charge of the London branch of the banking house, was predicted in Wall street.

The election of Morgan, Jr., to the directorate of the Western Pacific Railway company, the first office he has ever accepted in the United States, was taken in the financial district as confirmation of the report that the son was soon to relieve his father of his business cares.

Now it is said that by January 1, 1906, young Mr. Morgan will have stepped at least partially into his father's shoes on this side of the Atlantic, and that his election as a director of the Western Pacific was the first of such honors in 35 corporations of which the elder Morgan is at present a director.

For the past three years the elder Morgan has given more of his attention to charity and art, and less to his vast business interests. His wealth is estimated at from $100,000,000 to $150,000,000.

Pearl Found in River.

The most valuable pearl ever found in the vicinity of Vincennes, Ind., was taken from the Wabash river by a mussel digger, who sold it to D. W. Langdon, an eastern buyer, for $5,000. The find was made a few miles south of Vincennes, where more than 150 people are raking the bottom of the Wabash for shells and pearls.

SAM HISLE EXECUTED.

He Confessed That He Was Guilty of the Assault.

Winchester, Ky., Oct. 20.—Sam Hisle, colored, was hanged in the jail yard here. He went to the scaffold with a firm step and without assistance. He stated that he was guilty of the crime for which he was about to suffer death and that he freely forgave all who had a part in his execution. He asked the assistance of the officers and the white people to root out the colored dens of iniquity which had led to his ruin and to help the colored people to a higher plane of life. His neck was broken and he died with little struggling. The crime for which he was executed was an atrocious one. On August 14 he went to the house of Mrs. Bond and tried to assault her, but she escaped. He then went to the home of Mrs. Jasper Case, and finding her alone, assaulted her and fled. He was captured at Paris and taken to Lexington for safekeeping. When brought here for trial a mob was formed to lynch him, but the sheriff and circuit judge by strenuous efforts succeeded in preventing it.

MARCUM'S REMAINS.

They May Be Dug Up To Settle a Doubt—Grand Jury Dismissed.

Jackson, Ky., Oct. 20.—The grand jury which has been investigating the Marcum murder was dismissed by Circuit Judge Riddle. The jury reported that it would not find an indictment against any one else for the murder, Commonwealth's Attorney Adams asked Judge Riddle to summon another grand jury, saying that in his opinion the evidence given before the jury which had just reported was sufficient to warrant several indictments. Judge Riddle took the matter under advisement. Owing to an alleged discrepancy in the testimony between that given at the trial of Jett and White, Marcum's body may be exhumed and an autopsy held.

LOUISVILLE'S NEW THEATER.

Negotiations for a Site Have Been Practically Closed.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 20.—Congressman Joseph L. A WEDDING THWARTED.

The Groom-To-Be Shot and Fatally Wounded An Unwelcome Guest.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 21.—A wedding was thwarted by the groom-to-be shooting an unwelcome guest. After a romantic courtship of six years, William King, a horse trainer, of Boston, came here to wed Katherine Sebre. When he went to the young woman's home to be married he met C. W. Scott, a whisky dealer, whom he disliked. They quarreled and Scott was shot just beneath the eye and is not expected to survive. When arrested King claimed the bride-to-be had shot Scott. The young woman denied it and the police say that they have proof positive that King fired the shot. He trained horses for R. W. Robb & Son, of Boston.
